ANOTHER SCHOOL TERM

Opening of another school term is just a few weeks away. Boys and girls—whether they'll admit it or not—will be glad to return to the classrooms. In Palm Beach county the school system is second to none in the state and members of the county school board are due a pat on the back for working out financial difficulties which will bring about a nine-month school term. Messrs. Widell, Salvatore and Engram have left no stone unturned in their efforts to give the boys and girls of Palm Beach county the finest to be had in educational facilities. These school board members have a big job. They are doing it in a conscientious manner. So, this fall, with the beginning of another term, let's all of us should co-operate with the men at the head of the system and with the passing of another nine months we will have chalked up another successful school term. To Messrs. Widell, Salvatore and Engram we say: "You're doing a fine job. Keep up the good work."

WASN'T URGED

Well, anyhow "Socker" Coe wasn't for the moment getting the earnest solicitation of many friends when he made his senatorial announcement in Paris, France—Wauchoia Advocate.

AGAINST COE

A Palm Beach lawyer and author of crime stories named Coe announced his candidacy for the United States Senatorship now held by Senator Andrews, on his arrival from a trip to Europe. He says he is about 40 percent for the Roosevelt policies. Evidently he is too close to Palm Beach millionaires to get the support of Florida Democrats. His public utterances have not shown any real conception of the country's needs. We are for Senator Andrews as against Coe. Andrews comes nearer representing real democracy—Southwest Floridian published in Fort Myers.

LABOR DAY:

The celebration of Labor Day holds a most important meaning for all Americans. It is the acknowledgement that it is honorable in our country to work with one's hands. This is not so in many foreign lands where there is a class distinction so pronounced that the laborer for hire and employer who hires are in two distinct and separate classes. Almost every American has a part in labor at some time or another, and the average American is the American laborer.

Of course there is a labor problem in this country. For the conditions of labor after ten years to year and such a large organization as is the labor group needs to change in its various responsibilities. New leaders come and go, discord and divisions arise in its ranks. It is the hope of all that such difficulties will iron themselves out and we can continue to respect the purpose and aims of labor. There have been times when exceptional cases have arisen to cause citizens to disapprove tactics of labor. In order to win a point, violence is not necessarily wise. As a whole, labor and its employers are on a firmer footing, a clearer understanding exists between the two groups. We wish that the common gain for both will be felt and the steady, strong leadership of such a force as labor will call forth wise and seasoned heads.

WELCOME HOME

This is about the time when folks are returning from vacations with many stories to tell of trips and sights, experiences and meetings. The family that went north starts off with a photo of a string of fish that makes an angler's palm itch. Of course we know how often we have pictures all about with the ocean with the pumpkins and the pumpkins of the big one that broke the line at the bait, and the anchor and left without saying good-bye. There are the folks who traveled many hundreds of miles from home and came across the yellow sea to live in the Glades and went to school here in the old days. The world seems to be a different world seems! The neighbors who saw the World's Fair tell us of amazing sights and predictions of the future. Those of us who remain at home and not lucky enough to have a vacation may be a bit envious of it all, but we are glad too. We welcome the travelers back and listen to your experiences, and say "glad to see you home again."

Sugar Stickers To Be Placed On Mail

Jacksonville, Aug. 24.—An intensive mail-sticker campaign to require thousands of persons in all parts of the nation to place a small adhesive sticker on the mail possibilities of Florida has been inaugurated by the Florida State Chamber of Commerce.

The stickers are featured by a small sketch of the sugar industry at Clewiston and bear three different messages, all designed to acquaint the reader with Florida sugar industry and urge them to write or wire their delegates in Washington to remove present sugar regulations hampering the fullest development of the Florida industry. Mr. Cole explained.

"Write to an American. Florida is allowed to supply less than 1 percent of the nation's sugar requirements, yet 70 percent of all the sugar used in this country is imported. Florida is not even allowed to fill her own sugar bowl. Write or wire your congressional delegates to increase Florida's sugar production."

"More employment. Removal of restrictions on Florida sugar production would give employment to 100,000 heads of families with an income of more than $70.

000,000 per year. Write or wire your Congressman and ask him to help these American farmers."

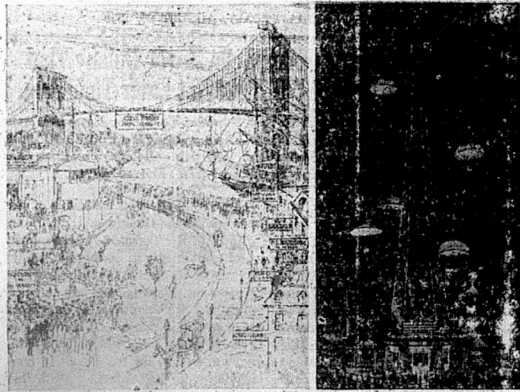

"Jobs for 100,000! If Florida were permitted to supply even 10 percent of the country's sugar requirements she could provide jobs to support 100,000 families, with an annual cash income of more than $70 per family. Write your congressional delegates to remove these valuable prejudices. Write your congressman and ask him to vote an increase in Florida's sugar production."

Mr. Cole said a sticker is being applied to every piece of mail going out of the state chamber of commerce. The stickers are being sent to various firms and organizations in all parts of the state with the request that they, too, affix the stickers on their mail.

REPLACEMENT WORK
State Road Department workmen replicated the worn-out wooden crossing over the water channel known as the Millerburg Canal to the Everglades Experiment Station pumping unit this week. Traffic was detoured from the crossing and the workmen began the replacement of the old wooden structure with a new concrete one.

What puzzle many a youngster is how their parents have lived this long without knowing any more than they do.

FUN AT THE FAIR

THANKSGIVING GOES DEMOCRATIC

Although still listed as a doubtful state in the Thanksgiving controversy, Florida is likely to go democratic when Governor Coe wakes up his mind. As a trade unionist from away back, "Old Suwanee" might be expected to lean in the New England direction but he is even with the times when it comes to having an eye for business and the earlier date has been an advantage for Florida which he will not overlook.

The main argument is that moving up the date from Nov. 30 to Nov. 22 will aid retail trade by adding a week to the Christmas shopping season. Florida already will share the benefit of that but there is an even better reason. A great deal of tourist travel starts immediately after Thanksgiving and holding it a week earlier gets them down here that much sooner.

Against these benefits we know of no serious advantages. There usually are a good many football games booked for that day but in quiet cases Florida schedules can be adjusted without much inconvenience. Some personal plans may be interfered with but there are still three months in which to change them, and a week's difference that, far away can't be very important. Perhaps our truck farmers may find some objection as they point certain vegetable crops for the Thanksgiving market and the earlier date may catch things a little too green. However, that is a regulated matter. The date of planting, and if cultivation is moved up a week it will take that much more off the summer slack.

This illustrates the importance of getting the matter settled definitely as soon as possible. Whether it be Nov. 23 or 30, though, it matters so much as to know which it is going to be. As to that, the governors have the say. President Roosevelt undoubtedly will stick to his decision for Nov. 22, but his proclamation isn't the final word. "Each state fixes the effective date. The latest date is Nov. 25 favorable to the change. 14 probable and nine undecided. With that prospect before them, like a surgeon cutting into the human body, they work with pick and shovel to dig under the skin and expose a malignant mass of bad-colored, cancerous, and water-pipes, vital organs that serve a great city and insure its thorough life."

Night falls and a billion light-like stars in the Milky Way crawl out into the dark to turn the city into a magic fairyland of light and beauty. The country boy who gazes for the first time on Broadway's Great White Way is in for the thrill of his life, whether he is willing to admit it or not. If your finances permit, you can take in a show at the moment. Tobacco Road, Yokel Boy, Hallelujah, Radio City Music Hall, or the Little Forest may attract you and they all offer superb entertainment. But without a dime in your pocket you can roam around 52nd and Broadway, mingle with the crowd, look at the lights and experience a kick that you could not get anywhere else in the world. Here lavish beauty and glittering poverty, cast their respective shadows across each others path and jeweled slipper-heel walk light-ly over marbled floors that later know the calloused knees of the weary scrub woman. Bigger youth and tottering age rub elbows in the jostling throng, sleek chromium trimmed elevators boot grim faces executives to their financial fairs while rickety tenement stairs serve the shop girl's aching feet.

Manhattan, symbol of a nation's wealth and power, while typifying poverty, cast their respective shadows across each others path and jeweled slipper-heel walk light-ly over marbled floors that later know the calloused knees of the weary scrub woman. Bigger youth and tottering age rub elbows in the jostling throng, sleek chromium trimmed elevators boot grim faces executives to their financial fairs while rickety tenement stairs serve the shop girl's aching feet.

"American" is not AMERICA. Back of her proud structures of towers and steel stands countless lesser cities, towns and villages, millions of fertile acres, vast forest areas, great mountain ranges, mighty lakes and rivers that feed the arteries of commerce to find their beating heart in this great metropolis. Cut off this vital blood stream and New York would shrivel and die, for while America can live without New York, New York cannot live without America.

Every American should visit Manhattan and take pride in the achievement and progress it represents, but more important every New Yorker should see other parts of the country—the sunny south, the golden west, the mountain areas and vast sections of plain and prairie and learn that New York in all her glory is in reality but a small part of the America on which she depends for her existence.

And while as a country boy, I am bored to Manhattan, there seems a good part of the balance of the country I'm not forgetting that in the end of it's the country boys like you and I that make her what she is.

HEAVY RAINS
Heavy rains falling Wednesday afternoon did only slight damage to farming lands in this section. Several seed beds near Pahokee were reported under water but most of them had been planted on higher ground. The rain flooded streets in Belle Glade and Pahokee and many cars were stalled along the highway between the two towns. Accompanied by practically no wind but intense lightning, the "only" real damage done by the storm was the burning of a Pahokee Power and Light Co. pole three miles west of Pahokee.

About Those Who Try To Outwit The Flaky Fish In Lake Okechobee and Other South Florida Fishing Spots

The winner of last week's fishing contest at Lee Belzer's Hardware Store was a woman. Mrs. H. E. Jones. She succeeded in subduing an 8 pound, 14 ounce black bass which not only took first prize in the weekly contest, but captured second place in the season's catches to date, with only a few days remaining before the end of the annual contest.

Unusually fine strings of fish have been hooked and brought in by parties fishing in Lake Okechobee and the rim canal within the past few days. H. L. Davis, for one, and W. B. Page probably had the finest string that has been landed here in a long time. 14 fish totalling 45 pounds, the largest of which tipped the scales at 8 pounds, 7 1/2 ounces.

Jack Baker and R. C. Kelsold, of Christian, emptied the lake of 4 bass weighing a total of 15 pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coleman came all the way from Plant City to join with H. L. Davis in landing a string of 13 big ones, weighing 35 pounds.

Cannon Predicts War Next 2 Weeks

PORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., Aug. 23.—Predicting war in Europe within 15 days, Congressman Pat Cannon, in an address to the Rotary club Wednesday declared he would oppose the United States being involved to the expenditure of a single cent.

Cannon said in the German alliance with Russia Hitler now appears as the most dangerous factor to state Europe since 1918, and it was his observation that had France and England repelled Hitler's advances at Munich his career of international gangsterism would have ended there. Now he has no course but to go forward, Cannon said, "because he believes this country is not 'cured' of its earlier foolishness."

Cannon, leaving this week for the west coast of the United States and Alaska to inspect naval operations as a member of the house naval affairs committee, said he expects to be called back to Washington to face the committee's report on his trip to the European situation.

Mosquitoes Lead In Insect Damage

Charges that the common mosquito lead the nation in insect damage, were made by G. H. Bradley, New Smyrna, associate entomologist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture at a luncheon meeting Wednesday at the Hotel George Washington in West Palm Beach.

A total of 400,000,000 was a spent on pests last year, according to Bradley, who stated the insect leads the nation in damage costs. One hundred and fifteen different varieties of mosquitoes have been identified and classified, said Bradley. Of these, Florida has about 47, with only three to be found commonly in this section of the state. Those to be found here include the common house type that sings but does not sting, the salt and freshwater marsh mosquito that stings and the thorn, mosquito carrier of dengue fever and yellow fever. Malaria carrying mosquitoes are not common in this section, he said.

Damage to crops and health from the mosquito caused it to be ranked first in monetary destruction throughout the nation, the speaker continued.

W. I. Lee, Fort Pierce, head of the West Coast Anti-Mosquito Control Association, informed Mr. Bradley and spoke briefly of the efforts being made to control mosquitoes in Florida.

Among the many guests of the club were Mayor John Dulany, of Pahokee, and H. J. Bradley, secretary of the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce.

Glades Growers To Farm In Martin Co.

Louis Weiman and Arthur Wells are among large Glades farmers who will be full planting operations in Martin County's back country, west of Hope Sound, S. D. Weiman owns approximately 10,000 acres of the sand land, some of which is undergoing clearing and a large majority of which is being planted. Arthur Wells and W. E. Grass are owners of a 640-acre development west of Hope Sound. Both will plant winter crops in the area.

The Martin County area has other small developments under way in what may prove to be a big thing in farming operations within a few years.

County Road Patrols Are Needed To Augment Work Of State Organization

Only 60 Patrolmen Provided For In Legislative Act

Tallahassee, Aug. 24 (FNS)—County road patrols should not be discontinued when the new state road patrol becomes active, officials charged with the enforcement of the new state road patrol act stated this week.

The officers were greatly concerned over reports reaching the capital city that many counties either were planning on discontinuing their road patrol or had already stopped them.

Two principal reasons given for ceasing road patrol operations were highways, and that in the future the counties were that they would not be needed when the state road patrol began activities and that the new Public Safety Bill or road patrol act prohibited the counties from engaging in road patrol work.

State road patrol officials pointed out that even if the full force of sixty road patrolmen authorized by the act were placed in active service, they could not hope to effectively patrol more than a 15,000 miles of state and county highways, and that in the future of public safety all county road patrols should be retained until the Legislature were fit to increase the number of state road patrolmen sufficiently to cover the state and county highways. The smaller counties could then safely discontinue their patrols, officials said but even then the larger counties should continue their patrols.

Officials also expressed considerable doubt that the revenue from the drivers licenses would be sufficient to provide the necessary equipment and salaries for the new force of sixty men authorized under the act. They did not say how many men might be employed but intimated that the number would probably fall quite a bit under the limit of sixty set by the safety bill.

They also pointed out that there is no provision in the road patrol act which prohibits counties from engaging in road patrol work from the revenue from the drivers licenses would be sufficient to provide the necessary equipment and salaries for the new force of sixty men authorized under the act. They did not say how many men might be employed but intimated that the number would probably fall quite a bit under the limit of sixty set by the safety bill.

Million Dollar Program Set Up For Dade County Road Completion Plan

Includes Section Road 26 To Shore Of Lake Okechobee

TALLAHASSEE, Aug. 22.—The State Road Department set up a $1,000,000 program today for improvements to the Tamiami Trail and the Lake Okechobee-Miami back road in Dade County. Chairman Arthur B. Hale said the work would be financed with Dade County gasoline tax funds impounded for several months because of court proceedings.

Work will be started in about 60 days. Bids will be received and contracts will be awarded as quickly as details can be arranged. Gasoline tax funds credited to Dade County under a special law were impounded here, and ultimately the courts declared the law unconstitutional. As a result, the money reverts to the State Road Department for highway work in Dade County.

Chairman Hale said the department would improve and relocate sections of the Tamiami Trail west of Miami. It will also complete sections of Road 29 and Road 270 to supply a short cut from the Lake Okechobee section into North Miami Beach without going into the Miami city limits.

Clewiston Shells Pahokee Twirlers In Sunday Fracas

Hendry County Outfit Wins From Locals 14 to 4

Clewiston, taking advantage of the absence of Pahokee's regular moonmen and poor fielding by their opponents, slugged out an impressive 14 to 4 win over Pahokee's nine at Bateman Field Sunday.

Baxter was forced to take over mound duties for the Pahokee team because of injury and sickness of Stafford, Jacob and Bird pitching mainstays of the local team.

Boyton took over on the slab in the fifth but was shelled, with equal disregard. Six errors added served to further weaken any opportunity Pahokee hitters might have had to silence Clewiston's heavy attack.

Summary: Clewiston 600 033 224 14; Pahokee 100 001 002 4. Batteries: Pahokee, Baxter, Boyton, M. Spooner and Crosby; Clewiston, Forbes, Hooks and Clark.

Struck out: by Baxter 1, Boyton 2, Spooner 1, Forbes 0. On base hits: Boyton, Pugh, Crosby, Hooks, Bell, Ward, Hare, Moore (2). Hit by pitcher: by Baxter 3, Boyton 1. Stolen on bases: Pahokee 9, Clewiston 8. Double plays: Belle to Beardsley.

Mosquito Control Finishing Work To Subject Of Meeting Begin On Road 26

The possibility of establishing a Palm Beach County mosquito control district was discussed at a meeting of representatives of various communities in the county Wednesday afternoon at West Palm Beach.

The meeting, called by E. F. Stump, West Palm Beach representative of the recently formed East Coast Anti-Mosquito Control Association, included talks by G. R. Bradley, New Smyrna, entomologist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, W. I. Lee, Fort Pierce, association president, and Ed Radinsky, Fort Pierce, secretary-treasurer of that group.

Plans call for the cooperation of local county agencies with the State Board of Health. It was agreed to form a committee from those present to seek a mosquito survey from the State Board of Health, through a petition. The survey would indicate how extensive and recurrent are the mosquito infestations in the area and advise what practical means could be arranged to combat the menace.

After this information is obtained, the group then will attempt to secure signatures of 10 per cent of the county's freeholders to present to the county commission requesting the calling of an election to obtain millage to finance expenses of the mosquito work and formally turn it to a county mosquito control district.

Pelican Lake Gets New Postal Service

Postal service will be inaugurated beginning Friday to Pelican Lake, a small Everglades settlement, two-and-one-half miles southwest of Azucar. It was announced by O. B. Carr, West Palm Beach postmaster, that the fourth class post-office has been established at the settlement.

Serving the new post office will be the Star Route which serves the Everglades section with fortnightly mail deliveries from the East Coast and returns with mail from Clewiston on the south in the afternoon.

Contractor for the route, Herbert A. Copeland, will stop there on his out-bound trip each morning picking up and delivering mail at this time, making the journey two-and-one-half miles each way off the highway.

No information was given here as to arrangements for the office, or the appointment of a postmaster or acting postmaster.

SCOTT STEWARDSHIP

Both informative and interesting is the account of stewardship of Boy Scout work in Palm Beach County as reported by R. D. Hill, president of Gulf Stream Council, Boy Scouts of America.

"Perhaps the most excellent feature" of the report is that there was membership increase in the year of 1938 or more than 200 per cent.

A disappointing note declares the Council has retarded further expansion; that "leadership was Beard, pastor for an indefinite period instead of an annual term; A. M. Henderson, W. E. Cato, L. T. Keen and R. P. Fletcher, deacons for four years; H. L. Speer and H. E. C. Unwin were recommended for ordination as deacons; Mrs. W. M. Key, church clerk; J. T. Jenkins, Sunday school superintendent and church treasurer; W. V. Unwin, trustee for unexpired term of T. A. Inadequate to the enthusiastic response of boys and parents.

"Total boys served from August 1, last year, to August 1, this year, including white and negro Scouts, Sea Scouts, and Cubs, reached 1,676 with 354 leaders additional. Merit badges were earned by 993 Scouts spent six week at the camp west of Lantana, where buildings were erected and where a 200-foot well had to be drilled to provide for potable water. The camp for negroes is held on Lookatchee River.

The Scout Budget adopted for 1939 ran to a little more than $6,400, or about $4 a boy. But an appraisal of camp buildings and equipment runs to more than $5,000, which seemingly is taking care of the organized outdoor activities of more than 1,600 boys at a most nominal expenditure each.—Palm Beach Post.

The only product that never seems to exceed the demand for it is propaganda.

FLORIDA'S CHARM, INDUSTRY AND LEARNING, SHOWN AT NEW YORK FAIR

Two pictorial views of the Florida exhibit at the New York World's Fair have been judged as most attractive and symbolic of Florida. (Left) the gardens seen from the entrance path, with tower in background. (Right) the exhibit, with the pictorial diorama of the most interesting sections of the state, has become one of the most popular exhibits at the Fair.

Harry Bennett, one of Florida's important growers of tung trees, looks with interest at the fruit of the tung tree, planted by the General Tung Oil Company of Gainesville, Florida, and New York, plays host to Mr. Bennett, Mr. Cullen sponsored the plant of the tung tree at the Fair to show visitors of other states the progress in the development of the new industry in Florida. (In picture on right) The University of Florida at Gainesville demonstrates its work in tung tree research at the Florida exhibit. The exhibit commands the attention of students and professors of schools and colleges throughout the country.

Bing Crosby in "East Side of Heaven"
Sunday and Monday at Belle Glade and Tuesday night at Pahokee.

YOU'LL GET A NEW BANG OUT OF BING!

"Bing is a cruising troubadour, to put it more plainly a singing taxi driver. Joan, his sweetheart, is a hotel telephone operator. Mischa Auer is Bing's unemployed roommate who has learned from reading the stars that he should not even look for work until 1942.

There is your background for the show. And all three players do a successful job of making you like them because you know them so well. You have known them for years—a girl down the block, the boy in that cheap fourth floor room and that other likeable fellow who will go to no end of trouble to keep away from work.

Baby Introduced

This trio would be quite sufficient in any picture. "That in East Side of Heaven," they are aided, and very materially, by "Sandy" the cutest infant ever to face a movie camera.

"Sandy" is "deposited" with Crosby by Irene Hervey, who takes this means of keeping her baby from her wealthy and hard-fisted father-in-law, portrayed by C. Aubrey Smith. That's when the fun really starts, fun such as you have rarely seen until you watch Bing, Joan and Mischa try to take care of the youngster.

Then there is the music, four brand new lulling tunes of the kind you want to sing, whistle or hum in or out of a show-bath. They are called "East Side of Heaven," "Sing a Song of Sumbuns," "That Sly Old Gentleman from Featherbed Lane," and "Hang Your Heart on a Hickory Limb." Johnny Burke and James Monaco, two of America's favorite song composers, wrote them. Crosby sings them in that style which is all his own. Furthermore, each song has a definite and natural place in the plot.
